Jewel is June Carter Cash in 'Ring of Fire'

By Jacqueline Cutler
© Zap2it

"Ring of Fire," a Lifetime movie premiering Monday, May 27, packs two wonderful surprises: The film is June Carter Cash's story, not Johnny Cash's, and Jewel, the singer, is terrific as her.

"People know me as a musician," Jewel says on a break from touring. "I was really worried I had to lose myself in the role, and I had to be able to transform."

Jewel plays the singer from ages 22 to 72, portraying her as a young woman whose first time solo onstage could have been her last. June Carter's pick for her autoharp went flying, and some in the audience started to snicker. But she made a joke and won over the audience with an easy sassiness.

The first time she met Johnny Cash (Matt Ross, "Big Love," "Magic City") he was smitten.

Two years later, he greeted her as he did everyone: "Hello, I'm Johnny Cash."

"I know that," she says.

"Want to know something else?" Cash says. "I'm going to marry you someday."

"Well, I just can't wait," she retorts.

It took a little time until she freed herself from a lousy marriage, but once Cash and she were together, that was it. Theirs was a great love story.

If you think you know this story all too well, because of Reese Witherspoon's Oscar-winning turn as June Carter Cash in "Walk the Line," remember that film was from Johnny Cash's perspective.

"I didn't watch it again," Jewel says of the 2005 film. "It wasn't necessarily some big conscious effort. I had my hands full of taking the role on, and this is the story of her life — not just the story of the woman behind the man."

That was precisely the reason for making this film, says director Allison Anders ("Southland," "Grace of My Heart").

"It was not just that June Carter had a husband," Anders says. "She had a husband who was an icon."

As expected, Jewel gets the singing down despite their different styles. June was more of an alto, and Jewel is more of a soprano.

"I was able to listen to a lot of her tapes and songs, and I was able to listen to exact sounds," Jewel says. "She was famous for a little growl she would do."

Bradley Cooper's 'Alias' as a television star

BY JAY BOBBIN © Zap2it

Q: Whom did Bradley Cooper play on "Alias"? – Steve March, Reading, Pa.

A: Now back on theater screens in "The Hangover Part III," the recently Oscar-nominated (for "Silver Linings Playbook") actor had one of his first major roles as reporter Will Tippin, one of the closest friends of "Alias" heroine Sydney Bristow (Jennifer Garner) ... though he didn't know, at least initially, that she was living a dangerous double life as an undercover operative. Cooper was a regular cast member in the first two seasons of the ABC series, then returned occasionally while he went on to do such other shows as "Touching Evil" and "Jack & Bobby" and get going on his feature film career with supporting parts in "Wedding Crashers" and "Failure to Launch."

Q: I'm surprised Amanda Knox would agree to a tell-all television interview when her case in the Italian courts is still active. Why did she? – Susan Engel, Columbus, Ohio

A: She had a new book to sell, and its release was what Diane Sawyer's ABC interview with her was timed to. The "ABC World News" anchor is widely considered the go-to person for public figures who have written their stories and want sufficient television time to tell them ... Jaycee Dugard and spouses Gabrielle Giffords and Mark Kelly being other examples. It should be noted that Knox agreed to the end-of-April broadcast before it was ruled that the murder case involving her could be retried.

Q: Is "Beauty and the Beast" coming back next season? – Chris Powers, Buffalo, N.Y.

A: It is. The CW announced the show's pickup a few weeks before the first-season finale ... thus prompting sighs of relief for stars

Kristin Kreuk and Jay Ryan and everyone else involved, since the last episode already had been filmed and left off with a cliffhanger that never would have been resolved had the order for Season 2 not come.

Q: Has Diane Keaton ever done a television show? – Donna Crandall, Rio Rancho, N.M.

A: In terms of a weekly series role, no, but the "Annie Hall" Oscar winner – whose latest feature film, "The Big Wedding," teams her with fellow Academy Award owners Robert De Niro, Susan Sarandon and Robin Williams – did guest shots on several shows early in her career. They included "Love, American Style," "Rod Serling's Night Gallery," "The FBI" and "Mannix." Keaton's career direction changed with the release of "The Godfather" – and, certainly, with her association with Woody Allen – but over the past two decades, she has returned to the home screen occasionally in TV movies. Those have included "Running Mates," "Amelia Earhart: The Final Flight," "Northern Lights," "On Thin Ice," "Surrender, Dorothy" and "Tilda." She also was heard, but not seen, as herself in an episode of Larry David's HBO show "Curb Your Enthusiasm."

Now his wife thinks he should have another chance to pursue his dream, so he’s off to California to study with Larry J. Livingston, professor of conducting at USC.

Saturday

The Help

8:15 a.m., 6:30 p.m. on SHOW

Surely one of the box-office “sleepers” of 2011, given its sustained success, this engrossing adaptation of Kathryn Stockett’s best seller finds a would-be author (Emma Stone) interviewing Southern housekeepers about their experiences. Viola Davis and Octavia Spencer are superb as two of the most prominent interviewees. The excellent cast also includes Bryce Dallas Howard, Jessica Chastain, Sissy Spacek, Cicely Tyson, Aunjanue Ellis and Mary Steenburgen.

Dixon won this race from pole in 2012 in a race shortened by rain and a disintegrating track.

Red Tails

5:50 p.m. on MAX

The story of the Tuskegee Army Airfield gets fresh treatment in this George Lucas-produced 2012 drama that really takes flight in its superb aerial sequences. The script recounts how the young African-American pilots were called to serve as U.S. forces were depleted during World War II, and how they used the situation to prove what they were made of. Cuba Gooding Jr., Tristan Wilds (“90210”), and music’s Method Man and Ne-Yo are in the cast.

Shrek

6 p.m. on TOON

The box-office champ of 2001, this clever, Oscar-winning comedy-fantasy is the computer-animated saga of an ogre (voice of Mike Myers) who adores a princess (voice of Cameron Diaz). Together with a wisecracking donkey (voice of Eddie Murphy), they oppose a tyrannical ruler (voice of John Lithgow) who wants all fairy tales abolished, even one as fractured – and frequently funny – as this.

Bet on Your Baby

7 p.m. on KMBC

Human toddlers may be the most unpredictable creatures in the world, and that’s what makes this show – which is ending its freshman season tonight – such a hoot. In case you’ve missed it until now, it has parents attempting to win money for their children’s college funds by betting on the outcomes of the wee ones’ activities. Did we mention ... unpredictable? Melissa Peterman hosts.

In what's likely his last trip to find new talent for the game, he's reluctantly given a traveling companion: his long-estranged daughter (Amy Adams), who realizes it may be her last chance for common ground with her father. Justin Timberlake also stars.

Milk

7 p.m. on USA

Sean Penn rightfully had a big run on the movie awards circuit, including a best actor Oscar, for his superb portrayal of Harvey Milk, the 1970s San Francisco city supervisor whose gay-rights activism made him a lightning rod for controversy. It also gave him a prime opponent in fellow politician Dan White (Josh Brolin), especially over the initiative known as Proposition 6. James Franco and Emile Hirsch also appear in this 2008 biodrama.

Critics Choice

2013 INDIANAPOLIS 500

Sunday at 11 a.m. on KMBC

FOR COLORED GIRLS

Sunday at 4 p.m. on BET

When playwright Ntozake Shange's award-winning "For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow Is Enuf" opened off-Broadway in 1974, her vibrant gallery of female characters was billed as a "choreo-poem." It's probably unfilmable in conventional terms, but while Tyler Perry deserves credit for trying to translate this iconic theater piece to the screen, his decision to render it into a pedestrian soap opera is definitely the wrong way to go.

BLADE: TRINITY

Sunday at 5 p.m. on TNT

Wesley Snipes had a good run in bringing the Marvel Comics character to life, and the franchise still proved to have box-office potency with this third chapter from 2004. Creatively, though, this Blade had lost some of its edge in a plot that found the title character teaming with his mentor's (Kris Kristofferson) daughter (Jessica Biel) and a vampire hunter (Ryan Reynolds) to pursue a villainess (Parker Posey) who wants to resurrect Dracula (Dominic Purcell).

BEHIND THE CANDELABRA

Sunday at 8 p.m. on HBO

Michael Douglas stars as legendary pianist Liberace in this long-awaited biopic from director Steven Soderbergh. Rob Lowe, Debbie Reynolds, Scott Bakula and Dan Aykroyd also star.

ROCK MY RV WITH BRET MICHAELS

BRING IT ON: ALL OR NOTHING

Monday at 8 p.m. on FAM

If you're past middle-school age and got your fix of Hayden Panettiere in a cheerleader's uniform from "Heroes," give this formulaic 2006 entry in the "Bring It On" franchise a pass. Panettiere's character, high-school golden girl Britney, is forced to start over at a new school when her family moves. She gets a spot on the cheerleading squad and finds herself up against her old friends at a big competition. Yawn.

It all ends up in a hostage situation in the mountains as a storm approaches. Walt also has to contend with hallucinations brought on by hypothermia.

WILD HOGS

Tuesday at 6 p.m. on FAM

File this desperate 2007 comedy under "senior abuse." Several familiar yet aging faces star as motorcycle enthusiasts who share a road trip that yields surprises. John Travolta, Tim Allen, Martin

Lawrence and William H. Macy play the amateur bikers from Cincinnati who head for the West Coast, facing down their individual crises and running into trouble with a veteran cycle gang leader (Ray Liotta) en route. A certain legend from a classic biker movie has a fairly amusing cameo.

He looks at the systems that have kept the Constitution healthy and the political forces that threaten to undermine the framers' vision in "Built to Last?"

THE PACIFIER

Tuesday at 8 p.m. on FAM

After failing to save a scientist's life, Navy SEAL Shane Wolfe (Vin Diesel) is placed in charge of the man's kids. Not used to undisciplined life, Wolfe is unprepared for teenage hormones, stinky diapers and a psychotic duck. But he does the best he can while Mom (Faith Ford) is away helping the government. Carol Kane, Brad Garrett, Brittany Snow and Lauren Graham co-star in this forgettable 2005 entry in the "macho man plays Mr. Mom" comedy subgenre.

THE SCORPION KING 2: RISE OF A WARRIOR

Wednesday at 9:01 p.m. on AMC

Clearly aimed at the audience members left hanging by the unanswered questions in the carnival du fromage that was "The Scorpion King," this Rock-less direct-to-video prequel flashes back to Mathayus (Michael Copon) as a 20-something hunk embarking on a quest for vengeance against the king (UFC star Randy Couture) who killed his father. Bad hairpieces ensue.

HELL'S KITCHEN

Thursday at 7 p.m. on WDAF

Gordon Ramsay wants chefs with good taste – discerning taste buds, that is. So he subjects the seven remaining contestants to a blind challenge in which they must identify ingredients solely by flavor. The winning team gets a luxurious sushi meal and a day of horseback riding, while the losers get delivery duty. A surprise challenge determines who gets immunity in the new episode "7 Chefs Compete, Part 1."

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL 3: SENIOR YEAR

Thursday at 7 p.m. on DISN

It isn't terrible, but if you're not in the franchise's target demographic, you're free to give this third incarnation a pass. After the blockbuster ratings the first two editions earned for Disney Channel, round three went to the big screen, with encoring director and co-choreographer Kenny Ortega amping up the basic elements. Zac Efron and Vanessa Hudgens return as Troy and Gabriella, whose romance may be ended by her college prospects. Ashley Tisdale, Corbin Bleu, Monique Coleman and Lucas Grabeel also return.

EASTWOOD DIRECTS: THE UNTOLD STORY

Thursday at 7 p.m. on TCM

Filmmaker Richard Schickel ("Elia Kazan: A Director's Journey") turns his lens on someone who's made his mark both in front of and behind the camera. As you might guess from the title, it's Clint Eastwood's work in the latter category that's the focus here. It's also the area where he's earned most of his Academy accolades, including best director Oscars for "Million Dollar Baby" and "Unforgiven."

MOTIVE

Thursday at 8 p.m. on KMBC

Ah, the things we do for love. Flynn and Vega (Kristin Lehman, Louis Ferreira) investigate the murder of a limousine driver at the hands of a customs officer. Their search for a motive leads them to a seductive waitress who apparently had the killer wrapped around her proverbial finger in the new episode "Pushover." Lauren Holly and Roger Cross also star.

NEXT DAY AIR

Thursday at 9 p.m. on BET

A parcel-service deliveryman (Donald Faison) with a fondness for the wacky weed delivers a package to the wrong address in this predictable 2009 comedy-drama. Which wouldn't be such a big deal if the package contained something other than 10 bricks of cocaine. You can probably guess what happens when the unintended recipients (Mike Epps, Wood Harris) – a pair of small-time thieves – open it. Omari Hardwick, Mos Def and Debbie Allen also appear.

MEN AT WORK

Thursday at 9 p.m. on TBS

Gibbs and Milo (James Lesure, Danny Masterson) engage in a date-off with a gorgeous woman (Jessica Szohr, "Gossip Girl"). Tyler and Rachel (Michael Cassidy, Stephanie Lemelin) try to keep their relationship alive despite the physical distance between them. Neal and Amy (Adam Busch, Meredith Hagner) have reason to regret letting Tyler use their apartment as a rendezvous site in the new episode "Long Distance Tyler."

HULK

Friday at 3:57 p.m. on SPIKE

Director Ang Lee ("Brokeback Mountain") suffered a rare misfire in this adaptation of the classic Marvel Comics tale of Bruce Banner (Eric Bana), who develops a green-skinned, superstrong alter ego after an experiment goes awry. Lee's attempt to plumb the psychological depths of his characters is sadly undercut by his computer-generated Hulk, a not-very-special effect. Jennifer Connelly, Sam Elliott and Nick Nolte also star in the 2003 fantasy.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Friday at 8 p.m. on KMBC

ABC's eye-opening hidden camera series returns for another season of revealing people's reactions to uncomfortable everyday scenarios and why they chose to intervene – or chose not to. John Quiñones hosts.

two of them a husband and wife – who put them through a series of tough exercises aimed at finding the root causes of their marital problems. Does it work? Tune in and find out.

WILD WILD WEST

Friday at 9:45 p.m. on TNT

Will Smith is funny, Salma Hayek is hot, but this misguided effort to bring the cheeky classic TV Western to the big screen will leave you cold. Smith never quite gets into the character of gunslinger Jim West, who teams up with a U.S. marshal (Kevin Kline) to take down an angry Confederate veteran (Kenneth Branagh) who wants to overthrow the government. And the cool gadgets and special effects aren't enough to save the would-be blockbuster from its weak script. Robert Conrad, where are you?

BET ON YOUR BABY

Saturday at 7 p.m. on KMBC

THE RUINS

Saturday at 8 p.m. on SYFY

Will they ever learn? It's terror time for more youths who venture where they shouldn't in this 2008 horror story, adapted by Scott B. Smith from his own novel. Jena Malone ("Into the Wild"), Shawn Ashmore ("X-Men") and Jonathan Tucker are among those playing vacationers lured into an excursion to a Mayan temple. The group encounters not only hostile locals but vines that appear to have a life of their own as they ward off intruders.

WRONG TURN 4: BLOODY BEGGININGS

Saturday at 10 p.m. on SYFY

The fact that few movie sequels are as good as their predecessors doesn't have to be a bad thing – if the original was good to begin with. That definitely isn't the case with the "Wrong Turn" franchise, a low-budget "Deliverance" rip-off featuring cannibalistic mutants. No. 4 – ostensibly a prequel – finds them going after a group of lost snowmobilers at an abandoned hospital. Yum.
